CLUB NOTES

BARROW v HUNSLET

Wednesday 5th October, 1983.
Kick Off 7.00p.m.

It is our privilege and indeed our pleasure to congratulate the Barrow Team on winning the Lancashire Cup, and most important of all we would like to thank the spectators for their loyal support throughout the tournament.

What a great game of Rugby League, a real team effort with every man giving all he had. None more so than Eddie Szymala, who has suffered with a knee injury recently. Only someone dedicated to fitness like Eddie, gifted with physical courage and the will to win, could have achieved this. And what an inspiration he must be to his fellow players. Well done Eddie and congratulations to the whole team on a good game well done.

This evening we welcome the Players, Officials and Supporters from Hunslet, and we hope tonights game will prove to be an entertaining one.

The most significant development at Hunslet during the summer months was the announcement that they have signed a five year contract with an option clause for a further five years to continue playing their home games on the Elland Road ground of Leeds United A.F.C. The agreement reported to be valued at more than £200,000 demonstrates the faith the club chairman and his fellow directors have in the future of Hunslet. During the past few seasons they have produced a number of players from their colts team, the best known of these is scrum half, Graham King, who was called into the Great Britain squad for the special close season training sessions.

Barrow coach Tommy Dawes is at last in the happy position of having real competition for first team places, players are now looking over their shoulders. Tommy now feels he has a strong squad of players to choose from. When Tommy took over as coach at Craven Park during the close season, he promised that all players would be given a fair chance to gain a first team place and that names did not mean a thing and with many class players looking for places in the first team, competition is very extensive indeed.

David Cairns looks to be at the peak of his form and is surely a player who can hold his own against the Aussies, it is surprising that he has not been added to the Great Britain squad, with his non-stop tackling and his elusive running, possibly today he can prove a point against Graham King.

Welcome to our new signing Dave Clough, he is over 6 ft. tall and at twenty six years of age this fine ball handling forward has a lot to offer, we wish him every success with the Barrow Club.

The Barrow player of the match award for today's game has been sponsored by Mr. Jim Fisher, Master Butcher, Barrow Market, to whom we are deeply appreciative.

Editorial Notes (by S.M.)

In the middle of last week, when copy was due in the hands of our printer, he proposed to Stuart and myself to delay printing our "Notes" until after the Final. This was a grand gesture which is much appreciated, especially as he was increasing his own problems by making the offer.

As we all know now the Lancs. Cup is here at Craven Park for only the second time — after almost thirty years! The credit is largely due to Tommy Dawes, and the players who produced some marvellous rugby — in attack, but mainly in defence. Also involved, of course, were those back-room boys who seldom receive praise — Brian Backhouse, Dr. Todd, Joe Harrison, and several others who make up the full back-up team.

In addition, I cannot praise too highly the magnificent support given to the players by those who travelled to Wigan — their contribution to the result is beyond measure. Can I appeal to as many of those thousands as possible to continue their support in future? We want success, but it must be earned — nothing comes easily!

The Bramley chairman made the programme number draw — "272" - and again is was not claimed, so it was probably held by a visitor, as before. The fact that the programmes have been a sell-out lately seems to prove that you like the new format. It is regretted that the price had to be increased - by the full board - but this will speed up some of the future improvements which are due.

The proposed "Match-day Mascot" will start next Sunday (v. Doncaster), and enough names are in hand to cover to the end of 1983. Any other sponsored names should be submitted soon to ensure inclusion during this season.

These notes have been shortened on purpose, but more in the Doncaster programme.

Rugby Talk (by Chris Rider of Red Rose Radio)

Whatever the result of Barrow's Lancashire Cup Final match with Widnes their surprise appearance in the final could prove to be a turning point for Tommy Dawes and his side.

The important thing could be that already Barrow have gone some way in convincing their doubting fans that they can build a side good enough to hold their own again in the First Division.

The fall in the attendances at Craven Park this season has been an indication that many supporters had become somewhat disillusioned at the prospect of a season in the Second Division.

And that early defeat at Workington showed, or appeared to show, that the new coach was still not getting the right response from his team. Perhaps it was expected that many players could take time to settle in under the new regime, many of them had only played under one coach before, Frank Foster.

But in the last few away matches particularly in the semi final at Warrington the players seemed to have shown the right kind of attitude. Whatever the result against Widnes there is a new air of optimism now at Craven Park and that should help to boost the gates as the team bid for a promotion place.

The fact that Barrow have reached two major cup finals in the last three years proves the vast potential there is at the club. Interestingly enough of the side that beat Warrington only Ian Ball, Eddie Szymala, Ralph McConnell and David Cairns, played in the famous John Player final against the Wires.

Times have changed, with Tommy Dawes going some way to prove that he's the right man to lead Barrow back into the top flight.

There's still plenty of work to be done but the signs are that at the moment Dawes is on the right lines.

You can hear reports of all Barrow's game each week on Sunday Sport on Red Rose Radio (301 medium wave, 999KH) at six o'clock together with the rest of the day's results.

"CRAVEN CLUB" REPORT (by S.M.)

Since reorganisation, the Club has taken on a new lease of life, and many new members have joined. Application forms are available and the subscription is reasonable - £1, plus 15p. VAT, so come along and support your own Club which boasts among the best in Barrow for comfort and quality of drinks served, especially the draught!

The Friday Games League team has made a sound start, but as results are not quite up-to-date, these will be published later. However, if you are interested, some excellent games can be watched if you come along for home fixtures.

Several ideas are in the "pipe-line". The first is "Open Pool Spectacular" which ought to begin in November. For pool enthusiasts this competition has the attraction of a minimum first prize of £100, for an entrance fee of £1 - well worth the outlay! Entry forms are available in the Club and the closing date is 31st October.

The total entry fees received will be shared - winner 40% (+£100), runner-up 20%, losing semi-finalist 10% each and losing quarter finalists 5% each. In addition several other prizes will be awarded; e.g. last two ladies in competition, table clearance, sportsmanship, etc. All preliminary heats will be single frame - possibly, but it has not yet been decided whether quarters, semis and final will be three, five, seven or nine frames.

As the prize money is very attractive it is hoped that local pool players will be able to show off their talents before plenty of spectators.

Amateur RL (by Paddy McAteer)

Saturday is quarter final day in the Slalom Lager Cumbria Cup and out of the eight teams remaining the Barrow and District League have only two representatives Millom and Dalton.

Millom have the plum tie of the round for their at home to West Cumbria Cup kings Kells.

Kells won a thrilling final last season defeating Hensingham 15 - 11 so this game against the Barrow Leagues top club should be a cracker.

Dalton unfortunately have to travel and they go to the club bang in form Egremont who have amassed a total of 126 points in the last two rounds, in round one they beat Askam 48 points - 3 and last week defeated Cockermouth 76 points - 14.

The other two games are Seaton against Wath Brow the conquerors of Ulverston and Broughton Red Rose against Clifton.

On Sunday it is the turn of the under 19's and holders Kells travel to Egremont or Roose.

Holker Pioneers are home to last seasons losing finalist Hensingham while there is an all local tie at Dalton who take on Millom.

The Barrow Open Age team played Barrow "A" here at Craven Park last night a game arranged for a double purpose, Barrow "A" go through October until the 29th without a fixture so this game keeps them in trim. Also for the League side this gives them a run out in preparation for their home game against Allerdale a week on Saturday in the first round of the BARLA Inter-League competition.

Do not forget to make a note in your diary for the Barrow League game here at Craven Park on Sunday October 30th against the touring New Zealand Maoris.

Peckham Pumas from the London area are running an under 19's team this season and are asking any local teams to pay them a visit and help the growth of Amateur Rugby in London.

Any club wishing to play Peckham can contact Mike Smythe, Secretary, Peckham Pumas ARLFC., 11, Southwell Road, Camberwell, London SE5 9PF, or telephone 01 737 0672.

Colts (by Roley Parker)

Castleford 82 Cardiff 6 — Hunslet 94 Salford Nil. I don't mind admitting that when I saw those two scores in the same Sunday morning paper I felt a little sick for I realised that our next two games were against Castleford and Hunslet. By the time you read this we will have played Castleford and if our lads have performed as well against them as they did in our last game against Hull I will be well satisfied.

We may not have all the best under 19's in the area but I am absolutely certain we have those most deserving success in the game.

Against Oldham, even taking into account all the injuries, we were a very disappointing team but in an attempt to put matters right for the game against Hull our lads turned up at Craven Park at 11 a.m. for a 2.30 p.m. kick off. Our mornings work did not turn them into overnight stars (One morning's work never will and I've never professed to be a super coach) but it helped to iron out some basic problems resulting in the lads putting up a very creditable performance against a very strong team. The reason I'm stating this is not to try and say we can work miracles but to illustrate the willingness and indeed eagerness of the lads to try and improve their game.

It is this keeness of most of them, there are of course exceptions, which makes me proud to work with them.

Such is the keeness of one player, Peter Fletcher, one of our most promising forwards that he is now travelling from Newcastle each weekend to play.

Peter is by no means our only player of promise. In our last programme I wrote of our under 16's but we have several others who could develop into fine players. Anthony McNichol represented Lancashire Colts last season but so far this term has been dogged by injuries to both ankles. Paul Creary and Simon Mulgrew are two fine players who I hope will still be with us next season. They are showing the right attitude and their performances to date have been most impressive. Creary is unfortunately out of the game at the moment with a broken bone in his hand. Dave Livesey another 17 year old has the perfect physique to make a top class prop but he too is out of contention with a shoulder injury.

There are others who have the opportunity and skill to make the grade if they show the right dedication.

One player who must be rate as "Mr. Versatility" is Jimmy Wilson. When Jimmy played scrum half against Hull it meant he has now played in every position for Barrow Colts and never let us down in any of them.

All the lads we have together make up a fine squad. My only regret is that we haven't got a few more pushing them for their places. I can't think of anyone outside who would be automatically preferred to players we already have but I'm sure the competition for places would benefit everyone. I'm disappointed that my constant appeal for players have gone unheeded but I suppose I must accept that it is always easier to mock others than be judged yourself for make no mistake there some very good players playing Colts rugby and it's the privelege of everyone to remain a big fish in a small pond providing they don't complain when they are not given a chance to swim in the ocean.

I'd like to finish by complimenting Tommy Dawes and the first team on reaching and I hope winning the Lancashire Cup final. It's a great achievement but be warned there are some good young players after your places.
